

Fair 10 Challenge

It's General Election time. But what do your candidates think about:

- Climate Change?
- Debt cancellation?
- Refugee rights?

Find out what they think about these and other justice issues at:

Fair 10 Challenge

Election time is an incredible opportunity to get your voice heard. Candidates are more receptive to ideas now than at any time during their term of office, and the promises they make now will shape their agenda for the next five years.

That's why we've created the Fair 10 Challenge. It's a campaign to get Leeds' General Election candidates to commit to strong action on social and environmental justice. Run by a coalition of global justice activists in Leeds, the challenge asks candidates to sign up to a 10-point manifesto covering a range of issues including climate change, debt cancellation, tax justice and refugee rights.

This will only succeed if lots of people show they care about these issues. To show your support, please sign the Fair 10 Challenge petition for your constituency. The more people that sign up, the more ambitious our candidates will be!

The results of the challenge will be published on Saturday May 1st. On that day we're asking people to spread the results far and wide to help people make an informed choice when they get to the ballot box. You can do this any way you want!
